

EMAP will maintain the following four-year review cycle for all of its approved American National Standards Institute (ANSI) American National Standards:

Year 1	Procedures
October 13, 2022	ANSI approved the Emergency Management Standard 5-2022 , US&R Standard 2-2022 , Emergency Management Operational Standard EM OPS 1-2022 , and the US&R Operational Standard US&R OPS 1-2022 . EMAP begins the new four-year Standard Review Cycle.
October 2022-January 2023	EMAP developed the 2022 Standard Training Curriculum and Crosswalks.
January 2023	EMAP publishes the new Emergency Management Standard 5-2022 , US&R Standard 2-2022 , Emergency Management Operational Standard EM OPS 1-2022 , and the US&R Operational Standard US&R OPS 1-2022 . EMAP released the 2022 Standard Training Curriculum and Crosswalks. The EMAP Commission reviews and approves all Committee and Subcommittee Applications.
March – December 2023	All Committee and Subcommittee members will attend 2023 Virtual Cohort Training.
December 2023	The Standards Crosswalk will be delivered to FEMA as part of the FY22 EMBAG close-out documentation.
July 2023	EMAP submits the PINS Forms notifying ANSI of the initiation of the revised Emergency Management Standard 5-20XX , US&R Standard 2-20XX , Emergency Management Operational Standard EM OPS 1-20XX , and the US&R Operational Standard US&R OPS 1-20XX .
August-October 2023	EMAP collects suggestions for revisions to the Standards from the Commission, Program Review Committee, Technical Committee, Standards Subcommittees, Assessment Subcommittee, and Training Subcommittee members.
Year 2	Procedures
January-May 2024	Standards Subcommittees develop proposed revised Standards for consideration by the Technical Committee.
June-July 2024	Technical Committee votes on the proposed revised Emergency Management Standard 5-20XX , US&R Standard 2-20XX , Emergency Management Operational Standard EM OPS 1-20XX , and the US&R Operational Standard US&R OPS 1-20XX .
September-October 2024	The EMAP Commission approves the proposed revised Standards.
Year 3	Procedures
January-February 2025	EMAP submits the BSR-8 Form notifying ANSI of the proposed revised Standards.

March-May 2025	ANSI publishes the EMAP proposed revised Standards for public comments. EMAP compiles all public comments on the proposed revised Standards for consideration by the Standards Subcommittees.
June-September 2025	Standards Subcommittees vote on the proposed revised Standards public comments and compiles recommendations for Technical Committee consideration.
October 2025	Technical Committee votes on the Standards Subcommittees recommendations on the proposed revised Standards.

Year 4	Procedures
January-March 2026	EMAP responds to all proposed revised Standards public comments.
January-December 2026	The Training Subcommittee develops the Standard Training Curriculum and Standard Crosswalks.
April 2026	The EMAP Commission approves the proposed revised Standards.
September-October 1, 2026	EMAP submits the BSR-9 Form to ANSI, announcing the new Emergency Management Standard and Urban Search & Rescue Standard .
October 2026	ANSI approves the Emergency Management Standard 5-2026 , US&R Standard 2-2026 , Emergency Management Operational Standard EM OPS 1-2026 , and the US&R Operational Standard US&R OPS 1-2026 . EMAP begins the new four-year Standard Review Cycle.
January 2027	EMAP publishes the new Emergency Management Standard 5-2026 , US&R Standard 2-2026 , Emergency Management Operational Standard EM OPS 1-2026 , and the US&R Operational Standard US&R OPS 1-2026 .